* Addressed to the Dept. of Commerce.

* With reference to your letter No. 156 M, dated the 26th March 1920, I am directed to forward the accompanying extract from the Home Department letter No. 347-War, dated the 16th March 1920 to the Government of Bombay. It will be seen that the Government of India have decided that the Custodians of Enemy Property may be authorized to exempt from sale personal effects up to the value of Rs. 100/- in each case. Cases in which it is proposed to exceed this limit should be referred to the Government of India for orders.

2. With reference to the suggestion made by the Custodian of Enemy Property, Bombay, in his letter dated the 8th January 1920, that he may be allowed discretion to exempt from sale articles of sentimental value left on repatriation by Germans and Austrians, the Government of India agree to such discretion being given but having regard to section 5 of the Treaty of Peace Ordinance No.1. of 1920, they consider it undesirable to allow them an absolutely free hand. In their opinion it would meet requirements if Custodians are authorised to exempt from sale personal effects up to the value of Rs. 100/- in each case; all cases in which it is proposed to exceed this limit should be referred to the Government of India for orders. If however, the limit of Rs. 100/- is regarded as inconveniently low, the Government of India will be prepared to consider the matter further.
